Central Michigan Regional Rural Health Network
Benefits of Becoming a Member

- Ability to join efforts that impact communities in Arenac, Clare, Gladwin, Isabella, Osceola, and Roscommon counties

- Ability to participate in the decisionmaking processes that drive the Central Michigan Regional Rural Health Network’s goals, objectives, and activities

- Opportunity to network with a diverse array of healthcare professionals from Arenac, Clare, Gladwin, Isabella, Osceola, and Roscommon counties, and beyond

- Opportunity to share and leverage information and resources with professionals from diverse sectors, including health care providers, colleges and universities, health and human services organizations, government organizations, and more

- Access to funding opportunity announcements and partnering opportunities

- Option to attend (in person or electronically) monthly network meetings that include presentations on emerging healthcare topics

- Opportunities to participate in informational and advocacy events, such as the annual Legislative Day

- Option to further advance the network’s initiatives through involvement with and leadership on Health Network committees, including Governance, Finance, Communications, Administrative, Legislative, Operational, and Membership

- Capability to access and contribute to community calendars relaying health-related events and educational opportunities

- Capability to access and contribute to the Central Michigan Regional Rural Health Network’s Resource Library

Working collectively to improve the health of and promote wellness among the community members in the Central Michigan region.

[Visit Our Website]